PERSONAL

Daughter of Terrell and Stephanie Battle... Has one sibling, Jamison Battle, who plays for Ohio State... Is majoring in sociology... Father, Terrell, played basketball at Winston Salem State University.

WHY BATTLE CHOSE THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

"The fact that Nia, Mara and Mallory stayed here as well and that all four of us could really be a part of something special. I also thought that us four committing to the U could start a trend of more top athletes staying home to play for the U."

PLITZUWEIT ON GROCHOLSKI

"Grace is an incredible young lady and a person who competes in everything she does," Plitzuweit said. "First and foremost, she is an outstanding fit for the University of Minnesota academically with a GPA over a 4.0. Secondly, she competes on the court and has experienced a tremendous amount of success winning back-to-back state championships in Wisconsin at Kettle Moraine High School and also by winning a National Championship with her AAU Team of the Wisconsin Lakers. On the basketball court, Grace is tough, she can defend multiple positions, and she rebounds at a very high level. Offensively, she is very versatile and demonstrates that with her ability to shoot it, score at the rim, and with her tremendous ability to create for others with her passing ability. We are thrilled to have Grace as well as the Groholskis joining our Gopher family."

COACHING STAFF

HC DAWN PLITZUWEIT

FIRST SEASON

Dawn Plitzuweit was named the 13th women's basketball coach in Minnesota history on March 18, 2023.

Plitzuweit (PLITTS-zoo-white) joins the Maroon and Gold after serving as the head coach at West Virginia University last season where she led the Mountaineers to an NCAA Tournament berth in 2023.

Prior to her season in Morgantown, Plitzuweit also served as the head coach at South Dakota from 2016-22. During her six seasons in Vermillion, S.D., she amassed a 158-36 record, including an 83-10 mark in the Summit League. The three-time Summit League Coach of the Year, Plitzuweit led the Coyotes to three regular-season championships, three conference tournament championships, four NCAA Tournament appearances and a berth in the 2022 NCAA Sweet 16 during her tenure at USD.

Plitzuweit brings in a career coaching record of 365-141 (.721) in 16 seasons as a head coach, including a 248-103 (.707) at the Division I level. Prior to South Dakota and West Virginia Plitzuweit also was the head coach at Northern Kentucky (2012-16) and Grand Valley State (2002-07). She also was an assistant coach at Michigan (2007-12), Green Bay (1998-02), Wisconsin (1997-98) and her alma mater Michigan Tech (1995-97).

As a head coach Plitzuweit has been a mainstay in postseason play, reaching either the NCAA Tournament or WNIT in 15 of her 16 seasons as a head coach. She holds the Summit League record for overall winning percentage (.814) and conference winning percentage (.892). She's totaled 15 winning seasons, two 30-win campaigns and nine 20-win seasons.

Plitzuweit's honors over her coaching career include the 2021-22 Kay Yow Award, presented annually to the Division I women's head college basketball coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court. She was the Summit League Coach of the Year three straight years (2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20). She also was the 2005-06 NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year at Grand Valley State University.

Statistically, Plitzuweit's teams in each of the past five seasons have ranked in the top 20 nationally in turnover margin, including the 2022-23 season at West Virginia at a margin of 6.1, which was the No. 1 mark in the Big 12 and the ninth-best margin in the country.

A 1995 graduate of Michigan Tech, Plitzuweit earned back-to-back GLIAC Player of the Year awards, four all-conference honors and three all-defensive team nods. She led the Huskies to a 99-22 record and four trips to the NCAA Division II Tournament. She was a Division II Bulletin All-America Second Team selection and a two-time Kodak All-America honorable mention pick (1994, 1995). She earned WBCA All-Academic accolades in 1994 and 1995 and was named Michigan's NCAA Woman of the Year in 1995.

BY THE NUMBERS

15 Plitzuweit has reached the NCAA Tournament or WNIT in 15 of 16 seasons as a head coach.

81 Plitzuweit holds the Summit League record for overall win percentage (.814).

9 As a head coach Plitzuweit has won 20 or more games nine times in her career.

1 One of Plitzuweit's top honors was the 2021-22 Kay Yow Award.

5 In each of the last five seasons Plitzuweit's teams have ranked in the top 20 nationally in turnover margin.

72 Entering the 2023-24 season Plitzuweit has won 72 percent of her games (365-141).

AC JASON JESCHKE

FIRST SEASON

Jason Jeschke (JESS-key), a native of Dallas, Texas, comes to Minneapolis after one season at West Virginia in the same role. He was officially introduced to Minnesota's staff on March 27, 2023.

In 2022-23 Jeschke helped the Mountaineers to a 2023 NCAA Tournament appearance and coached an All-Big 12 First Team selection, a Big 12 All-Defensive Team selection and an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection.

Prior to his time in Morgantown, Jeschke spent five seasons under Plitzuweit at South Dakota. From 2017-22, he assisted the program to a 135-27 overall record, including a 73-5 mark in the Summit League. Additionally, Jeschke helped guide USD to three regular-season championships, three conference tournament championships and four NCAA Tournament berths, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2022. Jeschke began his time at USD as an assistant coach for the 2017-18 campaign, before being elevated to associate head coach prior to the 2018-19 season. Jeschke also recruited and coached 19 Summit League All-Conference selections in his five seasons at South Dakota, including two Players of the Year, five consecutive Defensive Players of the Year, two Newcomers of the Year and four Sixth Woman of the Year recipients. Jeschke graduated from Southwestern College (Kan.) with a bachelor's in sport management in 2009.

In 2021-22, South Dakota finished the season with a 29-6 record and won the Summit League title in the regular season and conference tournament. Following its third consecutive conference tournament title, USD earned the automatic bid for the Summit League in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, earning a No. 10 seed, and defeated No. 7-seeded Ole Miss, 75-61.

South Dakota met up with No. 2-seeded Baylor in the round of 32 and defeated the Bears, 61-47, on their home court in Waco, Texas, to advance to the first Sweet 16 in program history. The Coyotes led from start to finish to snap BU's streak of 12 consecutive Sweet 16 appearances.

South Dakota concluded the 2021-22 campaign with a 52-49 loss to No. 3-seeded Michigan in the Sweet 16, in which the Coyotes were tied with the Wolverines until 22 seconds remained in the game.

While at South Dakota, Jeschke helped Plitzuweit's teams assert themselves as the premier mid-major program in the country. USD tallied at least 28 wins in four seasons and never lost more than seven games in Jeschke's five years with the team.

Moreover, in the history of the Summit League, only four teams have ever run the table during the regular season. Two of those three teams were Plitzuweit's Coyotes – in 2018 and 2020. In 2020, her squad outscored league opponents by an average of 32 points per game and became the first and only program to go undefeated in the Summit League's regular season and win the conference tournament championship.

Jeschke also helped Plitzuweit's South Dakota teams capture the Summit League records for the most consecutive wins (20, 2017-18), most consecutive league wins (24, 2019-21), most consecutive home league wins (31, 2017-pres.), highest overall winning percentage (.938, 2019-20) and fewest losses (2, 2019-20).

During his time at South Dakota, the Coyotes made their first appearance in the Associated Press (AP) and USA Today Coaches polls, ranking as high as No. 17 in the AP Poll and No. 11 in the Coaches Poll, both of which came during the 2019-20 campaign. Of note, USD's No. 11 ranking in the Coaches Poll in 2020 is the highest national ranking earned by a team in the Summit League's history.

Jeschke also recruited and coached 19 Summit League All-Conference selections in his five seasons at South Dakota, including two Players of the Year, five consecutive Defensive Players of the Year, two Newcomers of the Year and four Sixth Woman of the Year recipients.

Jeschke came to South Dakota after spending three seasons as the head coach at Oklahoma Wesleyan University. From 2014-17, the Eagles posted a 58-38 overall record and a 31-24 record in conference play. Jeschke recruited and coached 11 all-conference players and one NAIA All-American at OKWU. His 2015-16 team finished fifth nationally in scoring offense with 83.5 points per game.

Jeschke has served on the NAIA Tournament committee and the NAIA/WBCA All-America committee. He and his wife, Courtney, have a daughter, Rylee.

AC AARON HORN

FIRST SEASON

Aaron Horn, a Cleveland, Ohio, native joins Minnesota's staff after spending the last seven seasons with Plitzuweit at West Virginia and South Dakota. He was officially introduced to the staff on March 27, 2023.

Horn aided the West Virginia staff to the NCAA Tournament in 2023 and coached three All-Big 12 selections. Horn was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 class of 2017 and helped Plitzuweit become the fastest Summit League coach to reach 100 wins in just 124 games.

Prior to his time in Vermillion, S.D., Horn spent three seasons (2013-16) at Division II Ursuline College (Ohio) as an assistant. The Arrows won the Great Midwest Athletic Conference regular season and conference tournament to reach the 2016 NCAA Division II Tournament. Horn also brings coaching experience from the AAU level. He spent four years as the head coach for the Toledo Elite AAU Club and two years at the helm of the Cleveland Wolverines AAU Club. Horn earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Toledo in 2012.

In 2021-22, South Dakota finished the season with a 29-6 record and won the Summit League title in the regular season and conference tournament. Following its third consecutive conference tournament title, USD earned the automatic bid for the Summit League in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, earning a No. 10 seed, and defeated No. 7-seeded Ole Miss, 75-61.

Of note, USD's No. 11 ranking in the Coaches Poll in 2020 is the highest national ranking earned by a team in the Summit League's history.

Horn has coached 11 All-Summit League players, a pair of Summit League Players of the Year in Ciara Duffy (2020) and Chloe Lamb (2022). Other all-league players include three-time first-team pick Allison Arens, three-time first-team pick Hannah Sjerven, three-time pick Liv Korngable and two-time pick Jasmine Trimboli. With defense a point of emphasis in the program, South Dakota picked up five straight Summit League Defensive Player of the Year nods from 2018-22, including Trimboli (2018), Arens (2019) and Sjerven (2020, 2021, 2022). The Coyotes also led the league in scoring defense each season during that five-year stretch.

Horn also has spent time during the summers as a coach/counselor at the University of Notre Dame's women's basketball camp, as well as working camps at Toledo and St. Francis High School. Horn earned his bachelor's of business administration from Toledo in 2012.

AC RACHEL BANHAM

SECOND SEASON

University of Minnesota women's basketball head coach Dawn Plitzuweit announced the elevation of Rachel Banham to Assistant Coach.

Banham, who will continue to fulfill the role of Director of Quality Control along with being an assistant coach, rejoined the program back in September of 2022 after playing for the Maroon and Gold from 2011-16. As the Director of Quality Control Banham will provide support to the staff to enhance the quality and efficiency of day-to-day operations, and is responsible for assisting with practice, game preparation, statistical analysis and more.

At Minnesota Banham scored 3,093 points, leaving the college game as the No. 1 scorer in Big Ten history and sixth in NCAA history. She was the 2016 Big Ten Player of the Year and made 354 threes during her career, a program record. She is arguably most known for her then-NCAA record 60-point performance against Northwestern in 2016, a year that ended with her earning a First Team All-American nod.

After her stellar college career Banham was selected fourth overall by the Connecticut Sun in the 2016 WNBA Draft and was traded to the Minnesota Lynx in 2020. With the Lynx Banham has upped her scoring output, highlighted by a career season in 2022 where she averaged 7.9 points and was 13th in the league in 3-point shooting percentage at 38.3, leading the team with 57 made threes in a career high 17.5 minutes per game. Banham most recenlty just completed her eighth season in the WNBA and will continue her playing career in professional basketball alongside her role with the University of Minnesota. In her most recent season Banham finished the regular season seventh in the WNBA in 3-point percentage (41.3 percent) among qualified individuals.

In her WNBA career Banham has made 234 threes and has made the playoffs six of her eight seasons in the league.

BANHAM BY THE NUMBERS

AC TYLER VANWINKLE

FIRST SEASON

Tyler VanWinkle joined the University of Minnesota women's basketball staff in April of 2023. He came to the Twin Cities after one season at West Virginia as the video coordinator as well as two previous seasons as a graduate assistant for the Illinois State women's basketball program. Prior to that, he was a student manager from 2018-20.

Last season at West Virginia VanWinkle aided the Mountineers to an 19-12 record and a spot in the 2023 NCAA Tournament. He coordinated all video that was used for scouting, recruiting and player development. He produced analytics for all practices and games and was the director of high school and youth camps in Morgantown.

While serving as the graduate assistant for ISU, VanWinkle was a member of a staff that led the Redbirds to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament Championship and the NCAA Tournament in 2021-22. The squad also made its first postseason WNIT appearance since 2012-13 during his first year as a GA and went 73-45 during his four total seasons with the team.

Additionally, he contributed to the individual development of two All-MVC guards the 2022 MVC Tournament MVP JuJu Redmond during his time at Illinois State. His other duties included assisting the team's video coordinator with team and individual practice film, game film and opponent scouting.

VanWinkle also assisted with opponent scouting, practice planning, game preparation, player development, recruiting, in-game analytics, team travel and operations while at ISU.

A native of New Paris, Ohio, VanWinkle completed his bachelor's in business administration from Illinois State in 2020. He went on to earn his master's in sport management from ISU in 2022.

ADAM MARSO

FIRST SEASON DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Head women's basketball coach Dawn Plitzuweit announced the addition of Adam Marso as the University of Minnesota's Director of Basketball Operations on July 24, 2023. Marso returns to Minnesota, his alma mater, after stints at North Dakota and Henderson State.

Marso spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of North Dakota after spending the previous two seasons as the Fighting Hawks Director of Basketball Operations. While working as an assistant coach the past two seasons the Fighting Hawks accrued an overall record of 34-28 and Marso helped coach two First Team All-Summit League student-athletes and two All-Defensive Team members.

Marso spent the 2018-19 season as an Assistant Coach with the women's basketball program at Henderson State, helping the Reddies to 18 wins and the program's seventh appearance in the Great American Conference Tournament. Before HSU, he spent two seasons at Arkansas State as the team's Director of Operations. The Red Wolves made a run to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament Quarterfinals in his first season and recorded an eight-win improvement the following season that included a 70-69 victory over Florida. While scheduling and managing the team's travel, Marso also handled facility scheduling, arranged community service and promotion engagements for the staff and team, assisted in the team's social media efforts and coordinated the team's meals when on the road.

Before working for the Red Wolves, Marso spent two years in Minnesota, where he served in the role of Special Assistant to the Head Coach. In two seasons with the 'U', the team amassed 43 victories and received berths in both the WNIT and NCAA Tournaments. Prior to joining the women's basketball staff, Marso gained experience as a student intern with the University of Minnesota marketing team and worked with Gopher Sports Properties for one football season, assisting with sponsorship execution. He has also worked for the Iowa Cubs and served as a youth camp director.

Marso earned his Bachelor of Science degree in sport management from the University of Minnesota in 2014 and received a minor in management from the Carlson School of Management.

JAN WHITBECK

SECOND SEASON DIRECTOR OF STRATEGIC OPERATIONS

Jan Whitbeck became the Director of Strategic Operations on July 24, 2023, having spent the 2022-23 season as the Gophers Director of Basketball Operations.

Prior to Minnesota Whitbeck most recently worked with WeCOACH as the Senior Director of Events and Branding from 2019-2022 while also serving as the Interim CEO from December of 2021 to March of 2022. While at WeCOACH, a one-of-a-kind non-profit dedicated to recruiting, advancing and retaining women coaches in all sports and levels. She oversaw and executed events that included the NCAA Women Coaches Academy, the High School Women Coaches Leadership Academy and BreakThrough Summit, all of which helped develop women coaches throughout the country.

Prior to her work with WeCOACH Whitbeck served as the Director of Events with the University of Minnesota Alumni Association from 2017-19. At the 'U' she planned events such as the Alumni Awards Affair, Distinguished Teaching Awards, Ski-U-Mania and postseason athletic alumni events. She worked extensively with the Big Ten Conference where she planned and executed the B1G Alumni Professionals Conference, a two-day share and learn event attended by 60 alumni professionals from all 14 Big Ten institutions.

Whitbeck completed her Master of Arts in Physical Education from the University of Northern Colorado with a concentration in Sport Administration while also completing a Bachelor of Arts in Kinesiology from Western State Colorado University.

After college Whitbeck enjoyed a three-year basketball coaching career where she made stops at Western State Colorado University and Regis University. At Regis she also served as the Athletic Event Coordinator.

Outside of her professional life Whitbeck has also volunteered at a number of events. She worked as Media Liaison at the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament at the Pepsi Center in Denver, Colo., while also volunteering as a Practice Coordinator for the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament at the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colo.

STEPHEN PATTERSON

NINTH SEASON ATHLETIC TRAINER

Stephen Patterson, a native of New Ulm, Minn., begins his eighth year at the University of Minnesota primarily working with the women's basketball team.

Patterson completed his undergraduate degree in 2005 at South Dakota State University, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training with a minor in health sciences. He went on to obtain a Master of Science degree in exercise and sport science-human performance with specialization in athletic training from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2007.

While at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, Patterson served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with the primary responsibility of caring for the men's basketball team and providing assistant athletic training support to the football team. He also served as an approved clinical instructor for the accredited athletic training education program, one of the most competitive, in-depth and hands-on athletic training programs in the country.

After graduate school, Patterson held a position as an associate athletic trainer at Saint Cloud State University from 2007 to 2011 and provided direct athletic training services for women's basketball, baseball and men's and women's golf. He also served as an approved clinical instructor to the accredited athletic training education program. In 2011, Patterson moved into a clinical setting working as an athletic trainer/physician extender for Sports and Orthopaedic Specialists in Edina, Minnesota.

KRISTIN ZDANCZEWICZ

SIXTH SEASON ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

Kristin Zdanczewicz (zuh-DANZ-vich) is in her sixth season as the Assistant Director of Athletic Performance for the Minnesota women's basketball team.

A native of Milwaukee, Wis., Zdanczewicz is in her second stint at Minnesota after spending the 2017-18 season at Miami with the Hurricanes' women's basketball and swimming teams.

She previously served as the assistant director of strength and conditioning at the University of Minnesota for three years from 2011-14. During her time with the Golden Gophers, she worked with the women's track and field, women's cross country and gymnastics teams.

At Minnesota, Zdanczewicz has coached 11 All-Americans, six Olympic Trial athletes and five Big Ten event champions in track and field, as well as five All-Big Ten honorees in cross country and one Big Ten Gymnast of the Year. She also helped guide the Gophers to their first Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field Championship title in 2016.

Zdanczewicz also played extensively for the USA Women's National Rugby Team, serving as captain in 2007 and 2008, as well as taking part in the 2006 and 2010 World Cups. Of her 17 years of competitive rugby, she spent 13 at the international level, earning 23 caps.

MEGHAN BIELICH

FIRST SEASON DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE CONTENT

Meghan Bielich joins the Golden Gophers as the team's Director of Creative Content. The 2023-24 season will be her first.

Bielich arrived in the Twin Cities after spending four years at the University of West Virginia where she served as the Director of Basketball Operations and Assistant to the Head Coach.

She spent the 2018-19 season at Pitt, where she served as the Director of Video and Creative Content. Her duties for the Panthers included coordinating film exchange, film breakdown and assisting with scouting reports. Additionally, she was the camp director for the Lance White Basketball Camp.

That stint marked her second stint at Pitt, as she previously served as the Director of Women's Basketball Operations from 2011-13. In that role, Bielich coordinated all team travel, oversaw the distribution of equipment, coordinated practice and game times, scheduled community service activities, assisted with on-campus recruiting and served as a liaison to the marketing and promotions staff. She was also in charge of the Agnus Berenato Summer camps. Bielich served as the Video Coordinator from 2006-11 and was an interim assistant coach in 2010.

Prior to her return to Pittsburgh, Bielich spent three seasons as the Video Coordinator at Texas Tech. While with the Lady Raiders she was in charge coordinating film exchange, the production of recruiting and highlight videos, the creation of video playbooks, assisting with scouting reports and assisting the head coach with daily activities in addition to other assignments.

Bielich spent the 2014-15 season as the Assistant to the Head Coach at the University of Akron and was the head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach for the girls' basketball team at Bethel Park Senior High from 2013-14.

A native of Bethel Park, Pennsylvania, Bielich earned her bachelor's degree in communication from Clarion University in 2006 before graduating with a master's in sports management from California University of Pennsylvania in 2011.

BROOKE OLSON

FIRST SEASON GRADUATE MANAGER

Brooke Olson joined the Minnesota Golden Gophers in the spring of 2023 as a Graduate Manager after a standout playing career at the University of Minnesota-Duluth.

In Duluth Olson was one of the best players in program history, amassing 2530 points in 143 games played in five seasons. She started 110 games and was the captain and leading scorer on the Bulldogs 2022-23 team that reached the NCAA Division II National Championship game along with winning a conference title. In five seasons Olson averaged 17.7 points, highlighted by her 23.1 during the 2022-23 seasons, and added 6.6 rebounds per contest. During her career she shot 52.3 percent from the floor, 81.1 percent from the free throw line and 35.4 percent from beyond the arc. She was the 2022-23 WBCA Division II WBCA Player of the Year and was a Division II Honda Athlete of the Year Finalist. She left Duluth as the program's first four-time All-American and was also named the CSC's Division II All-America Player of the Year.

Olson graduated from the University of Minnesota-Duluth in May of 2022 with a degree in Exercise Science. Outside of basketball she was a Camp Director at Pacesetter and RLYGB and also was a Camp Instructor at Take It To The Rim during her college career. A native of Rice Lake, Wis., Olson graduated from Rice Lake in 2018 and played for her mother Darla Olson. She was a three-sport athlete at the high school level, playing basketball, volleyball and soccer.

2022-23 REVIEW

The 2022-23 campaign saw a youthful Golden Gopher program show signs of serious potential with buzzer beats, upset victories and incredible individual performances.

- The Maroon and Gold picked up two top 50 NET victories down the stretch of the season, both at home. Minnesota once again finished with a winning record at home at 9-8, finishing with a home record at Williams Arena above .500 for the 20th time in the 21 year history the team has played at the Barn.
- The team finished with a 4-14 record in the Big Ten Conference, earning the No. 12 seed at the Big Ten Tournament in Minneapolis hosted at Target Center, the home of Minnesota's WNBA team, the Minnesota Lynx.
- Minnesota once again played 12 total non-conference games, which included a trip to Charlottesville, Va., for the 2022 Cav Classic where the team split two games defeating Liberty and falling to host Virginia.
- The Golden Gophers enjoyed two victories to open the season at home with wins over Western Illinois and Lehigh. The Lehigh victory came on a last-second buzzer beater by freshman Mara Braun who finished with a season-high 34 points, including 22 in the second half. Her 34 points are the second most points scored by a freshman ever at the University of Minnesota.
- Minnesota's first loss of the season came on the road against NDSU before the team rebounded against Presbyterian at home. The next three games saw the Gophers alternate between wins and losses.
- The Big Ten opener proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season, picking up a 98-96 victory in the program's ninth-ever double overtime game. Freshman Amaya Battle posted a season-high 19 points while Minnesota's stellar true freshmen combined for 64 percent of the team's points in their first career Big Ten games.
- Minnesota earned the No. 12 seed in the Big Ten Tournament, but fell in the first round to No. 13 Penn State, rallying from 18 points down to tie the game late before falling 72-67 in regulation.

THE GOPHERS PICKED UP THE PACE

- Minnesota continued to push its pace throughout the entire season and by the end of the campaign was No. 1 ranked team in the Big Ten in regards to possessions per 40 minutes at 76.5. That 76.5 rate was also good enough for the No. 8 fastest pace in the NCAA.
- Although Minnesota's field goal percentage remained at the 40.7 percent that it was in 2021-22, the team did improve its overall scoring ranking in the NCAA at No. 61 in the country and No. 8 in the Big Ten.

THAT FRESHMEN CLASS IS LEGIT, AND STAYING

- Mara Braun wasted no time in showing why she was a part of the highest ranked recruiting class in Minnesota basketball history. She was the team's leading scorer (15.6 ppg) as a freshman, becoming the first to do that since Gopher great Rachel Banham in 2011-12.
- Braun was not the only freshman to make a huge impact. Mallory Heyer was a force in her first season where she played, and started, in all 30 games. Heyer was second on the team in double doubles with five. Four of those five double doubles came against Big Ten opponents, which was highlighted by Heyer's career game against Wisconsin where she had 28 points and added 15 rebounds in 40 minutes of action.
- Freshman Amaya Battle was the key to Minnesota's fast-paced offensive engine and it showed on the stat sheet. She dropped a freshman record 133 assists in her first season, breaking a 45-year-old program record (Joan Kowalsky). She posted four games with eight or more assists during the season and brought down 10 rebounds in four different contests, putting her firmly on triple double watch for the rest of her career.

LATE SEASON UPSETS

- Minnesota picked up two huge top 50 NET victories late in the season, both at home in February, defeating Purdue an NCAA Tournament team, and Nebraska.
- By way of an Isabelle Gradwell corner three with 1.1 seconds left, the Golden Gophers pulled off a 95-92 victory against the Cornhuskers. Mara Braun scored a Big Ten season-high 28 points and dished the game-winning assist to Gradwell on the final offensive possession.
- Against Purdue the Gophers built a double-digit lead in the first half before Purdue took the lead back in the fourth. Mara Braun took over in the fourth scoring and assisting on 21 of the 25 points scored in the fourth quarter to pull off Minnesota's best win of the season on Senior Day.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Alanna Micheaux was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and by the media covering the conference.
- Mara Braun was selected as a member of the Big Ten's All-Freshmen team by both the league's coaches and media.
- In addition, graduate transfer Isabelle Gradwell was tabbed as the school's Sportsmanship Award representative. Gradwell played in all 30 of the games during the season and was the team's top three point shooter at 35.1 percent (27-of-77).

IN THE RECORD BOOKS

- Minnesota continued the national trend of more threes by shooting the seventh-most threes in a single season as a team (551) and made the 10th most in a single season (176).
- Mara Braun's 26 points against Penn State (Dec. 3) was the most points in a Big Ten debut in program history.

5 PICKS IN 9 YEARS

Since 2015, Minnesota is one of the few programs in the country to have had at least five players taken in the WNBA Draft.

Within the Big Ten, the Golden Gophers are tied with Rutgers for the second most WNBA picks since 2015.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 10 MINNESOTA 81, NO. 7 NOTRE DAME 76
March 16, 1994 • South Bend, Ind.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Minnesota came out strong in its first ever NCAA Tournament game, building up an 11-point lead in the first half against Notre Dame. The Gophers led 29-18 with 5:07 to go in the first half, but scored just one basket in the remainder of the half to go into halftime with a mere 31-30 lead.
In the second half, the accuracy of reserves Lori Lawler and Nancy Alexander turned a two-point deficit into a seven-point lead early in the period. Alexander nailed all five of her field goal attempts, including two from three-point range. Lawler contributed eight points, six on free throws, to help the Gophers' pull away. The Irish outrebounded the Gophers 44-29, but missed many of their scond-chance shots. Notre Dame had two players foul out of the game, and Minnesota took advantage of its 34 free throw opportunities, scoring 24 points from the charity stripe.
Notre Dame's Beth Morgan led all scorers with 26 points. Five Minnesota players scored in double figures, led by Carol Ann Shudlick with 19 points. Other Gophers in double figures were Nikki Coates with 14 points, Crystal Flint and Nancy Alexander with 13 apeice, and Shannon Loeblein with 11.

NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
Vanderbilt scored the first points of the game on two free throws by Rhonda Blades and never relinquished the lead. The Gophers didn't give up easily, tying the score six times in the first half. Minnesota pulled even at 16-16 on a jump shot by Carol Ann Shudlick with 11:02 remaining in the half, but Vanderbilt answered with a layup by Heidi Gillingham, and never looked back. By halftime, the Gophers had a 15-point deficit.
In the second period, Minnesota was able to pull to within 12 on a basket by Lori Lawler with 11:47 left on the clock, but got no closer. Vanderbilt went on a 13-5 run to increase its lead to 19 points with just under seven minutes to go. The Commodores racked up 23 points in the final eight minutes of play, while the Gophers managed just 12 points during the span.
Shudlick played all but two minutes in the second half, despite racking up four fouls. Vanderbilt's Gillingham lead all scorers with 25 points and was one of five on the team scoring in double figures. For Minnesota, Carol Ann Shudlick lead the way with 22 points, 13 rebounds and four assists. Other Gophers in double figures were Crystal Flint with 15 points and Cara Pearson with 10.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 5 MINNESOTA 71, NO. 12 UNLV 54
March 16, 2002 • Chapel Hill, N.C.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
The Gophers used a healthy dose of defense and the scoring of Lindsay Whalen to capture a 71-54 victory over UNLV. Whalen poured in 29 points, including 9-of-10 from the free throw line, but it was the Gopher post defense that set the tempo of the game.
Kadidja Andersson and Janel McCarville shut down UNLV All-American Linda Frohlich, limiting the 6-2 senior to nine points, less than half of her season average of 20.9 points per game. Frohlich was held scoreless in the second half and finished the game hitting just four of 14 field goals attempts. The 54 points scored by the Lady Rebels was the best defensive effort of the season for the Gophers.
Andersson scored the game's first bucket on a layup and the Gophers never trailed. The score was tied at 6-6 before Minnesota scored eight consecutive points and never looked back. The Gophers grabbed a 29-13 lead on an Ebba Hemberg jumper with 9:20 left in the first half and held a 37-24 halftime advantage.
Minnesota's lead was never seriously threatened in the second half. A three-pointer by Lindsay Lieser, her fourth of the game, game the Gophers their biggest lead of the game at 54-32 with 10:29 to play. All 12 Golden Gophers in uniform got into the ballgame in the waning minutes.

NO. 4 NORTH CAROLINA 72, NO. 5 MINNESOTA 69
March 18, 2002 • Chapel Hill, N.C.
NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
The Golden Gophers ended their dream season with a 22-8 record after a 72-69 loss to North Carolina in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Gophers were led by Lindsay Whalen, who scored 31 points and dished out seven assists. Corrin Von Wald added 14 points. Janel McCarville, despite playing just 26 minutes because of foul trouble, pulled down 12 rebounds.
Minnesota held its last lead at 69-68 on a Whalen layup with 1:54 left to play. North Carolina's Candance Sutton scored the deciding basket on a lay-in at 1:38, while Crystal Baptist's rebound basket with 17 seconds left secured the victory as a last-second three-pointer by Whalen fell short.
The Gophers had everything go their way early in the game. Whalen hit a trio of three-pointers in the game's first seven minutes to give Minnesota a 21-7 lead. But the momentum began to swing the Tar Heels way when McCarville picked up her second foul with eight minutes left in the first half. With McCarville on the bench, North Carolina went inside the paint and chipped away at the Gopher lead.
The Gophers were forced to bring back McCarville, hoping she wouldn't pick up another first-half foul, but that's what happened with 4:18 before intermission. North Carolina closed the half on a 9-4 run, yet the Gophers still clung to a 37-36 lead at halftime. The second half was a game of runs, but North Carolina's seven second-half three-pointers made the difference in the game.

2003 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 6 MINNESOTA 68, NO. 11 TULANE 48
March 22, 2003 • Stanford, Calif.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Minnesota advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 68-48 victory over Tulane. Lindsay Whalen led all scorers with 18 points, all of which came in the second half. Freshman point guard Shannon Schonrock played all 40 minutes and tied a career-high with 12 points, while Kadidja Andersson was the third Gopher in double figures, scoring 10 points.

The 48 points scored by Tulane was a season-low for the Gopher defense. Tulane shot just 38.2 percent from the field and turned the ball over 22 times. Minnesota shot 54.3 percent from the floor but a tight Green Wave defense forced the Gophers into 20 turnovers of their own.

After foul trouble placed Gopher starter Corrin Von Wald on the bench for the final 13 minutes of the first half, Tulane took advantage and grabbed a 28-27 lead at the half. Tulane extended their lead to 30-27 before the Gophers hit their next six shots.

Back-to-back Whalen three-pointers started an 8-0 run that broke a 35-35 tie and provided the Gophers with an eight-point lead at 43-35. A Whalen steal and layup with 10:48 remaining gave Minnesota a double-digit lead that the Gophers would not relinquish. Minnesota made 14-of-24 field goal attempts (58.3 percent) in the second half.

NO. 6 MINNESOTA 68, NO. 3 STANFORD 56
March 24, 2003 • Stanford, Calif.
NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
Corrin Von Wald led four Golden Gophers in double-figures as No. 6-seeded Minnesota upset No. 3-seeded Stanford, 68-56, on its home court to advance to its first Sweet 16 in school history.

Von Wald scored 19 points, including a clutch 8-for-8 performance from the free throw line in the second half. Lindsay Whalen added 13 points and six assists, while Shannon Schonrock matched her career high for the second straight game with 12 points and Kadidja Andersson chipped in 11.

A Von Wald jumper with five seconds left in the first half gave the Gophers a 31-29 lead and the momentum at intermission. The Gopher defense held Stanford scoreless in the first five minutes of the second half while building a 10-point lead on an offensive putback by Janel McCarville. She finished with a game-high 11 rebounds. Stanford (27-5) fought back to within a point at 50-49 with 7:23 left on a three-pointer by T'Nae Thiel but the Gophers would not fold, going on an 8-0 run over the next five minutes.

Minnesota made 10-of-12 free throws in the final minute of the game to secure the victory. The win broke Stanford's 26-game winning streak in Maples Pavilion.

2003 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 2 TEXAS 73, NO. 6 MINNESOTA 60
March 30, 2003 • Stanford, Calif.
NCAA Tournament Sweet 16

Game summary:
Minnesota saw one of its finest seasons in school history come to an end with a 73-60 loss to second-seeded Texas in the West Region semifinal. Reserve center Kim Prince led the Gophers with 15 points.

The Gophers trailed by as many as eight points late in the first half and by a 34-28 margin at halftime, but they used a 13-5 run in the first five minutes of the second half to capture a 41-39 lead. The next four and a half minutes proved to be crucial. The Longhorns went on a 10-0 run, while the Gophers missed four shots and committed three turnovers. A free throw by Kadidja Andersson broke the scoring drought with 10:51 remaining bringing Minnesota back to within four points at 46-42.

Texas reserve Nina Norman hit a huge three-pointer in the Longhorns' next possession to recapture the momentum. The Gophers closed within three points on several occasions, the biggest at the 7:42 mark when Lindsay Whalen found Janel McCarville for a driving layup, drawing Texas All-American Stacy Stephens' fourth foul. McCarville missed the free throw and Andersson hauled in the rebound but missed the putback. The teams exchanged baskets in their next possessions, with a Whalen layup cutting Texas, lead to 55-52. It would be as close as Minnesota would get the rest of the way. Texas scored consecutive baskets, the second by Heather Schreiber with 6:26 remaining would turn out to be the last field goal the Longhorns needed.

Texas made 14-of-16 free throws from that point on to secure the victory. The Gophers held Stephens to just eight points and five rebounds before fouling out in the second half.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 7 MINNESOTA 92, NO. 10 UCLA 81
March 21, 2004 • Minneapolis, Minn.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Behind a 31-point performance by Lindsay Whalen, Minnesota recorded a 92-81 victory over UCLA. Whalen hit 12-of-14 free throws in the victory.
Shannon Schonrock was the beneficiary of several Whalen drives. Her biggest trifecta came with 6:58 left in the game. UCLA had just extended its lead thanks to an 18-5 run that turned a 10-point deficit (56-46) into a three-point lead (64-61). Schonrock's triple off an assist by Whalen put the bounce back into the Gophers' offense and evened the game.
The teams would battle to four more ties, the last at 79-79 with 1:30 remaining. The Gophers put the ball in the hands Whalen, driving through traffic and flipping in a lay-up to give Minnesota the lead. UCLA's Nikki Blue had already scored 31 points but would miss a big shot with 59 seconds left. Minnesota's Shannon Bolden gathered in the important defensive rebound.
The Gophers ran 17 seconds off the clock before Whalen was fouled by Blue with 41 ticks remaining. Whalen hit both free throws to extend Minnesota's advantage to four points. UCLA tried to answer with a long Lisa Willis three-pointer, but McCarville pulled down the rebound and was fouled. UCLA coach Kathy Olivier disagreed with call and was whistled for a technical foul. Whalen hit one of two free throws on the technical and McCarville swished both her tosses on the personal foul to give Minnesota an 86-79 lead with 29 seconds to play.

NO. 7 MINNESOTA 80, NO. 2 KANSAS STATE 61
March 23, 2004 • Minneapolis, Minn.
NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
The seventh-seeded Gophers defeated second-seeded Kansas State 80-61 to advance to their second straight "Sweet Sixteen."
Minnesota dominated in the first half, as the Gophers took a 43-17 lead into the break. Minnesota used a barrage of three-pointers going 6-of-9 from behind the arc in the first half. Shannon Schonrock paced that attack as she made all three attempts from 3-point land in the half. She also went five-of-five from the charity stripe to lead all scorers with 14 points in the first half.
Minnesota embarked on a 20-4 run in the first half, which put them up 32-13 with 5:37 remaining. Kansas State interrupted the Minnesota string of scoring with a two free throws to make it 32-15. However, the Golden Gophers answered with an 11-0 run to take a 43-15 lead, its largest at that point. Jamie Broback hit a three-pointer with 47 seconds left in the half to cap off the run, giving Minnesota the 28-point lead.
That run was keyed by 3-pointers by Whalen, Kelly Roysland and Broback. The Wildcats came out of the intermission with first four points to cut it to 43-21. Minnesota answered immediately with a 7-0 run to build its largest lead at 50-21 with 15:44 remaining in the game. Minnesota would not let the Wildcats get any closer then 18 points the rest of the way. Minnesota outrebounded Kansas State 38 to 25 on the night. The Golden Gophers shot 52.1 percent (25-48) from the field, including 8-for-15 from three-point land. Minnesota also tallied 21 assists on the night. The Golden Gophers also went 22-for-27 from the free-throw line for the game.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 7 MINNESOTA 76, NO. 3 BOSTON COLLEGE 63
March 28, 2004 • Norfolk, Va.
NCAA Tournament Sweet 16

Game summary:
History was made at Minnesota's 76-63 victory over Boston College in the Mideast Region semifinal as the Golden Gophers advanced into the Elite Eight for the first time.
Minnesota used a 16-3 run in the first three and a half minutes of the second half to build a cushion the Gophers maintained through the rest of the game. The Gophers turned a two-point, 30-28 halftime lead into a 15-point, 51-37, lead with 12:35 remaining. Shannon Bolden scored seven of her 13 points in the Gopher run.
The Eagles rallied with an 11-2 over the next four minutes to cut the Gophers' lead to seven points on a 3-point field goal by Clare Droesch. Minnesota halted the Boston College run by going back inside to Janel McCarville, who scored the next six points for the Gophers. Lindsay Whalen followed suit by scoring Minnesota's next seven. McCarville set the tone for the game with 14 points and five blocks in the first half. Whalen only scored two points in the half but added 13 in the second half to finish the game with 15 points. The Gophers' All-American guard also dished out 10 assists in the game for her first double-double of the season.
Bolden finished with 13 points but her biggest contribution came on the defensive end of the court where she held the Eagles' second-leading scorer Amber Jacobs to just seven points on a 1-for-8 shooting performance. Jacobs entered the game averaging 14.9 points per game.

NO. 7 MINNESOTA 82, NO. 1 DUKE 75
March 30, 2004 • Norfolk, Va.
NCAA Tournament Elite Eight

Game summary:
Lindsay Whalen and Minnesota ended Duke's dream season and became the lowest seed to reach the Final Four in six years as the seventh-seeded Golden Gophers ousted the top-seeded Blue Devils 82-75 in the Mideast Regional final.
Whalen was named the NCAA Mideast Region MVP for her performances against Boston College and Duke. Duke was turned away in its last bid to win a championship for senior All-American Alana Beard and Iciss Tillis. Beard scored just 10 points on 4-for-14 shooting.
The teams exchanged leads and were tied three times in the first four minutes of the game. Whalen's 3-point field goal with 13:53 left in the half gave the Gophers a lead they would never relinquish. The Gophers' extended their lead to as big as 10 points twice in the first half, the last on a trey by Shannon Schonrock at the 2:57 mark. Minnesota ended the first half with a 33-26 lead.
Duke chipped away at the Minnesota lead and, after a three-point play by by Monique Currie, the Gophers held a one-point lead at 50-49. More importantly for the Gophers, McCarville was whistled for her fourth foul on the play and headed to the bench with 11:53 to play.
Minnesota, however, managed to build a seven-point lead with McCarville on the sidelines. Duke answered to tie the score at 59, but Shannon Bolden drained her third 3-pointer of the second half to halt the Duke rally. As the minutes ticked off the clock the Gophers made sure the ball was in the hands of Whalen, who was dazzling in shredding the Duke defense for a pair of lay-ups, her last coming with 56 seconds left to give Minnesota a 72-68 lead.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 1 CONNECTICUT 67, NO. 7 MINNESOTA 58
April 4, 2004 • New Orleans, La.
NCAA Tournament Final Four

Game summary:

Minnesota saw the most exciting season in its history, one that caught the imagination of the basketball nation, come to a close at the Final Four in a 67-58 defeat to eventual national champion Connecticut in the national semifinal game.

The defending champion Huskies took it to the Gophers in the first 15 minutes of the game as they built a lead as big as 11 points in the first half after hitting on 17 of its first 24 shots (70.8 percent). The Minnesota defense tightened up in the half's final five minutes but the Gophers still trailed 37-29.

The Huskies had managed to do what no other team had in the NCAA Tournament, control Janel McCarville on the boards. McCarville finished the first half with 10 points, but only three rebounds.

The Gophers came into the second half inspired by the chant of "Believe," from their faithful fans. Minnesota's Shannon Bolden hit a 3-pointer, followed by a Lindsay Whalen layup and the UConn lead was cut to four points a little over three minutes into the half.

Connecticut answered with six straight points to stretch its lead once again to 11 points, but Minnesota was not about to go down without a fight.

The Gophers rattled off the next nine points, seven by McCarville, to slice the Huskie lead to two points at 46-44 with 12:11 remaining. UConn star Diana Taurasi halted the rally with a huge 3-pointer, the first of seven straight points scored by the Huskies to push their lead to nine points at 53-44.

Once again, the Gophers fought back, this time with seven consecutive points, including a clutch 3-pointer by Jamie Broback. Minnesota was once again within two points at 53-51 with 7:54 left to play.

The teams exchanged baskets and, after a Kelly Roysland driving layup with 5:50 remaining, the Gophers were down 58-55. The next four possessions were the difference in the ballgame. Minnesota stole the ball from the Huskies on the next three possessions and had good shots that just wouldn't fall. On the fourth possession, Whalen was hit as she drove for a layup, but no foul was called. Connecticut's Ann Strother hit a heart-stopping 3-pointer to end the stretch of over 2:30 without a point added to the scoreboard.

The Gophers could get no closer than five points the rest of the way as the Huskies were 4-of-4 from the free throw line to secure the victory and advance to the national championship game.

McCarville led the Gophers with 18 points and seven rebounds. She set an NCAA Tournament record with 75 total rebounds and was named to the All-Final Four Team.

Whalen was held to 11 points in her final game as a Golden Gopher. She added seven assists and six rebounds.

2005 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 3 MINNESOTA 64, NO. 14 SAINT FRANCIS 33
March 19, 2005 • Minneapolis, Minn.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:

Third-seeded Minnesota held Saint Francis (Pa.) without a field goal for the last 11 minutes of the game to record a 64-33 victory in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Shannon Schonrock hit a 3-pointer on the Gophers' first possession as Minnesota led the entire game. The Gophers shot 45.8 percent in the first half and took a 10-point lead on a fast-break lay-up by April Calhoun with 5:39 left in the half. Saint Francis scored five straight points, including a triple by Christin Black to trim the Gophers' lead to five points at 22-17 with 4:12 before intermission. It would turn out to be the last basket of the first half for the Red Flash and the first of two long droughts without a field goal.

A Janel McCarville basket gave Minnesota a 24-17 lead at halftime, with the 17 points matching last year's first half by Kansas State for an NCAA Tournament low for points allowed by the Gopher defense.

The Gophers' potent one-two punch of McCarville and Jamie Broback in the low post took over the game in the beginning of the second half. The duo scored the first 12 points of the half for the Gophers. Three minutes into the half the Gophers led by 17 points after a Broback layup.

Field goals were few and far between for the Red Flash in the second half. The team made just four of 20 attempts with Saint Francis' last basket coming off a Black jumper with 11:38 remaining. The Red Flash scored their final eight points on free throws.

Minnesota shot much better in the second half, hitting on 55.6 percent of its field goal attempts to finish at 51.0 percent for the game. All 13 Gophers in uniform played with 11 of them adding to the scoring column.

Kelly Roysland came off the bench to contribute seven points, while April Calhoun's lucky number was six as she collected six points, six rebounds and six assists.

The 33 points scored by Saint Francis were the fewest allowed by the Gophers during the NCAA era, bettering the 34 points scored by Detroit earlier in the season. The 33 points also tied for the second-lowest point total in NCAA Tournament history.

2005 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 3 MINNESOTA 73, NO. 6 VIRGINIA 58
March 21, 2005 • Minneapolis, Minn
NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
Jamie Broback scored 23 points as third-seeded Minnesota earned its third consecutive trip to the Sweet 16 with a 73-58 win over Virginia.
Janel McCarville tied a Minnesota career record with her 48th double-double, scoring 11 points and grabbing 14 rebounds.
Virginia came into the game shooting just over 28 percent form 3-point range as a team but hit four early triples to take a 17-12 lead. The Cavaliers seemed to have to the momentum when McCarville picked up her second foul and headed to the bench with 9:32 left in the half.
Liz Podominick took McCarville's place in lineup and the Gopher defense responded in brilliant fashion, clamping down on the Virginia shooters, not allowing another attempt from behind the 3-point arc in the half. Meanwhile, the Gopher offense fed off the defensive stand and put together a 13-3 run with five different Minnesota players chipping in points.
Minnesota came out firing to start the second half. McCarville scored a three-point play, and Broback added a layup as the Gophers began to take control of the game. An 8-0 Virginia run brought the Cavaliers to within five points at 43-38 with 15:05 remaining, but the Gophers once again answered, scoring 10 straight points.
The Gopher lead swelled to as big as 21 points on a McCarville layup with 5:31 left in the game. Virginia chipped the lead to 12 late but Shannon Schonrock's third 3-pointer of the game iced the victory.

NO. 2 BAYLOR 64, NO. 3 MINNESOTA 57
March 26, 2005 • Tempe, Ariz.
NCAA Tournament Sweet 16

Game summary:
Minnesota's dream of a return trip to the Final Four ended with a 64-57 loss to Baylor in the regional semifinal. The Golden Gophers finished with their best overall record in the NCAA era, compiling a 26-8 mark.
The second-seeded Lady Bears built a 13-3 lead eight minutes into the game. The Gophers missed their first seven shots and committed three turnovers before Liz Podominick scored Minnesota's first bucket with 12:51 left in the first half. Five 3-pointers by the collective Gopher guard corps of Kelly Roysland, Shannon Schonrock, April Calhoun and two triples by Shannon Bolden helped Minnesota chip away at the Baylor lead.
Janel McCarville handed the Gophers their first lead of the game with consecutive baskets to start the second half. The lead changed hands three times over the next three minutes of action. McCarville tied the game for the final time at 39-39 with two free throws at the 16:32 mark. Baylor guard Angela Tisdale hit a big 3-point field goal in the Bears' next possession to ignite an 11-3 run. Minnesota didn't back down, though.
Kelly Roysland hit a breakaway layup after a McCarville steal to bring Minnesota back within four points at 54-50 with 6:10 remaining. The teams traded baskets before a critical stretch in which the Gophers turned the ball over in three of four possessions. Baylor scored four unanswered points to return the lead to eight points and sealed the win at the free throw line by hitting 4-of-6 attempts in the final minute.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 9 WASHINGTON 73, NO. 8 MINNESOTA 69
March 18, 2006 • Nashville, Tenn.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Minnesota was defeated by Washington, 73-69, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.
Kelly Roysland led all scorers with a career-high 23 points, but she was the only Gopher to hit double figures in scoring. The key of the game was Washington's offensive rebounding where the Huskies' collected 23 offensive rebounds, turning them into a game-deciding 23 second-chance points.
Roysland hit a pair of 3-point field goals, and a total of eight early points, to help the Gophers take an 18-9 lead with 11:26 left in the first half. A Lauren Lacey lay-up nearly two minutes later matched Minnesota's biggest lead at nine points (20-11), but the Huskies converted on their next four possessions for a 9-0 run to knot the score at 20-20 on two free throws by Nicole Castro at the 6:48 mark.
Minnesota recaptured the lead and a five-point margin (27-22) after a three-point play by Lacey with 5:02 left before halftime. The Gophers wouldn't score another field goal in the first half, but thanks to seven points scored from the free throw line, went into intermission with a 34-32 advantage.
Washington scored the first four points of the second half, with a Cameo Hicks bucket putting the Huskies up 36-34, their first lead since 5-4 in the opening minutes of the game. The Huskies extended the run to 8-1 to grab their biggest lead of the game at the 17:53 mark on another Hicks jumper.
The Gophers used two free throws by April Calhoun to tie the score at 43 three minutes later. Four consecutive free throws by Brittney Davis provided Minnesota with its biggest second-half lead of four points with 10:53, but Washington's Kristen O'Neill answered with a huge 3-point field goal from to break the Gophers' momentum.
Over the next five minutes, the score was either tied or the teams were trading one-point leads. At the 5:21 mark, Andrea Plouffe hit a baseline 3-pointer to give the Huskies a 63-60 lead and Washington would never trail down the home stretch. Minnesota was able to tie the score at 67-67 on a three-point play by Roysland with 1:20 remaining. The Gopher defense forced a missed shot by Hicks in the Huskies' next possession. Breanne Hicks, however, came up with Washington's 23rd and most important offensive rebound of the contest to keep possession. Ten seconds later, O'Neill swished another 3-pointer that served as a dagger to Minnesota's hope of advancing to the second round.
The Gophers closed to within a point when Lacey calmly hit two free throws with 33 seconds left, but Washington iced the game by going 3-for-4 from the charity stripe in the last 14 seconds of the game.
Overall, the score was tied 14 ties in the game, while the lead changed hands 11 times.
Lacey and Calhoun added eight points to the Gophers' tally, while Natasha Williams chipped in seven points and seven rebounds.

2008 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 8 TEXAS 72, NO. 9 MINNESOTA 55
March 23, 2008 • Bridgeport, Conn.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Minnesota saw its season end with a 72-55 loss to Texas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.
The Golden Gophers were led by Emily Fox's 23 points. She grabbed a steal on Texas' first possession and swished a pull-up jumper from 15 feet to give Minnesota its only lead of the game at 2-0. The Longhorns made eight of their next 11 shots to build a 17-5 lead four minutes later.
The Gophers chipped away at the Texas lead by converting at the free throw line. Minnesota scored seven straight points, sandwiching a Leslie Knight basket between free throws by Fox and Ashley Ellis-Milan to bring the deficit to three points at 21-18 with 5:03 left in the first half.
Unfortunately, Minnesota misfired on offense the rest of the half. A Brittaney Raven 3-pointer ignited an 11-0 Texas run to close the half. The Gophers missed five shots and committed three turnovers to limp into halftime on the short end of a 32-18 score. The stat sheet showed a 17.5 field goal percentage for Minnesota after making just 5-of-28 from the floor.
The Golden Gophers found a little offense in the second half, shooting 42.4 percent, but they were unable to hold down the Longhorns. Texas maintained a double-digit lead throughout the half by shooting 53.8 percent in the period. Despite 17 second-half points by Fox, the Gophers only managed to close with 12 points early in the half.
Texas rebuilt a larger cushion, taking advantage several times on a Gopher defense taking chances to get steals. Two free throws by Erneisha Bailey with 4:53 remaining gave Texas its largest lead of the game at 67-41. The Gophers refused to give up, though, outscoring the Longhorns 14-4 late in the game.
Raven led Texas with 19 points, while Bailey contributed 16.
Knight scored 12 points and pulled down seven rebounds in her final game as a Golden Gopher. Korinne Campbell topped the Gophers with nine rebounds.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 10 MINNESOTA 79, NO. 7 NOTRE DAME 71
March 22, 2009 • South Bend, Ind.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
Behind 23 points from Emily Fox and five huge 3-pointers from Katie Ohm, the No. 10 seeded Golden Gophers upset No. 7 seed and host Notre Dame, 79-71, in South Bend.
Jackie Voigt swished a jumper on Minnesota's first possession, fueling a stretch to open the game where Minnesota made nine of its first 11 field goal attempts. Notre Dame leading scorer Lindsay Schrader tied the score at 2-2 but would pick up her second personal foul with 17:30 to go. The Gophers took advantage to build a double-digit lead.
Voigt added three more field goals, her fourth bucket of the first half at the 9:03 mark put Minnesota up by a 28-15 margin. Brittany McCoy dished out six assists and scored five points while running the Gopher offense at a highly efficient level in the first half. With 3:56 remaining before halftime, however, McCoy was whistled for her third foul and the game would change from that point on.
Notre Dame turned up the pressure and attacked the basket and was rewarded with free throws. Two free throws by Erica Solomon cut the deficit to two at 55-53 with 10:14 to play. Ohm came to the rescue for the Gophers hitting back-to-back-to-back 3-pointers over Minnesota's next three possessions.

NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
Second-seeded Texas A&M fueled its offense by scoring 34 points off of 32 Golden Gopher turnovers en route to a 73-42 win in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
The Aggies shot out of the gates early by making 10 of their first 13 field goal attempts to take a 21-11 lead with 11:30 left in the first half. The Gophers paid early and often for their turnovers as Texas A&M scored 10 points off of nine Gopher miscues in those first 8 1/2 minutes.
The Gophers regrouped after the 12-minute media time out to mount a 7-0 run. Ellis-Milan scored five of her 13 first-half points in the run. Her basket with 9:16 left in the half brought Minnesota to within three points at 21-18, the closest the Gophers would be the rest of the game.
Texas A&M guard Tyra White hit a 3-pointer on the next Aggie possession to halt the Gopher rally and kick off an 18-6 run that would give the Aggies a 15-point advantage, 39-24, at intermission. The Aggies continued to build on their lead, starting the second half with an 18-5 run in the first eight minutes to take control of the game.

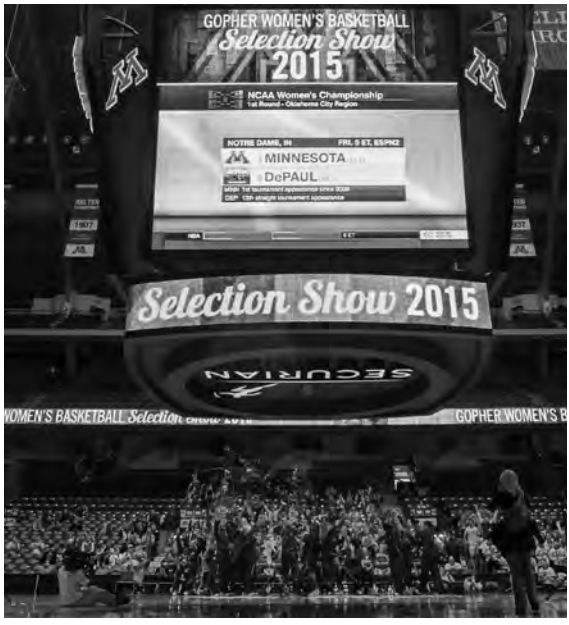
2015 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 9 DEPAUL 79, NO. 8 MINNESOTA 72
March 20, 2015 • Notre Dame, Ind.
NCAA Tournament First Round



Game summary:
Minnesota made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament in six seasons, but the No. 8-seed Gophers fell to ninth-seeded DePaul, 79-72, in the first round.
Amanda Zahui B., named a finalist for the 2015 Naismith Trophy earlier in the day, set an NCAA First Round and program single-game record with 22 rebounds, in addition to her team-high 21 points, which marked her 24th double-double of the season. It marked the second-highest individual rebounding total in any NCAA tournament game.
Zahui B. was one of four Gophers in double-figure scoring as Shae Kelley had 17 points, Carlie Wagner chipped in 14 and Shayne Mullaney added 11.
Leading a quartet of DePaul players in double figures was Megan Podkowa, who led all players with 23 points.
Minnesota held a 50-to-40.3-percent field goal shooting advantage but was plagued by 28 turnovers, compared to 11 for the Blue Demons.
The Gophers and Blue Demons traded leads to open the game before a 9-0 run gave the Maroon and Gold an eight-point lead, 14-6, with 13:19 to play in the opening stanza, a stretch in which Minnesota held DePaul scoreless for 5:02. A 7-2 run from the Blue Demons cut the Gophers' lead to three, before eventually taking a one-point lead with 6:03 remaining in the half.
Back-to-back 3-pointers from Wagner put Minnesota back on top by five, and Minnesota stretched its lead to 39-28 at the two-minute mark on a 14-2 run. Minnesota led 41-30 at halftime after making 14-of-28 from the field, which included a 4-for-9 performance from 3-point range.
The Gophers extended their lead to 15 points with just over 15 minutes to play as Zahui B.'s layup made the score 49-34 at the 15:24 mark. However, the Blue Demons mounted a 19-2 run which allowed them to take the lead with 10:10 left on a Chanise Jenkins layup.
Another Zahui B. layup 30 seconds later tied the score at 53-all, but DePaul began to pull away and held the lead for the remainder of the contest.
The Gophers' ninth appearance in the NCAA Tournament ended their first season under head coach Marlene Stollings. They compiled a 23-10 record, their most wins in 10 years.

2018 NCAA TOURNAMENT

NO. 10 MINNESOTA 89, NO. 7 GREEN BAY 77
March 16, 2018 • Eugene, Ore.
NCAA Tournament First Round

Game summary:
No. 10 Minnesota outscored No. 7 Green Bay, 57-35, in the second half en route to an 89-77 win over the Phoenix in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.
Minnesota was led by Kenisha Bell, who scored 24 of her game-high 26 points in the second half. She did most of her damage at the line, setting program tournament game records for free throws made (14) and attempted (17). She added five rebounds, four assists and two steals.
Destiny Pitts scored 20 points in her NCAA Tournament debut, going 5-of-7 at the 3-point line to tie a Minnesota tournament record for 3-pointers made. Gadiva Hubbard (16), Carlie Wagner (15) and Jessie Edwards (12) also reached double figures. Edwards was also the team's leading rebounder, pulling down a game-high nine boards.
A 3-pointer from Wagner put the Golden Gophers ahead 27-25 less than three minutes into the second quarter, but the Phoenix responded with an 8-0 run. It was part of a quarter that saw the Phoenix outscore the Gophers 25-10 and take a 42-32 lead into the locker room.
Green Bay extended its lead to as much as 13 during the third quarter, but the Gophers used a 19-4 run to turn a 12-point deficit into a three-point lead in the fourth. Green Bay briefly took the lead at 72-71, but Pitts answered the Phoenix's go-ahead 3-pointer with one of her own. Green Bay got within one at 78-77 with 3:22 to play, but Minnesota closed out the game on an 11-0 run.

NO. 2 OREGON 101, NO. 10 MINNESOTA 73
March 18, 2018 • Eugene, Ore.
NCAA Tournament Second Round

Game summary:
Minnesota saw its run in the NCAA Tournament come to an end in the second round, its best finish in nine years, after a 101-73 loss to second-seeded Oregon.
The Golden Gophers saw four players reach double figures, led by Carlie Wagner's team-high 20 points. She connected on a program tournament record with six 3-pointers, while the 12 made by the team was also the most for a Minnesota team in a tournament game.
Destiny Pitts scored 17 points, including four 3-pointers, while Kenisha Bell added 14 and led the team with eight assists and five rebounds. Taiye Bello also reached double figures by adding 10 points off the bench.
The turning point of the game came late in the second quarter. After Minnesota cut the lead to 41-36, Oregon embarked on a 16-0 run over a 4:26 stretch between the second and third quarters. The run eventually reached 23-3 to put the Ducks up 64-39 less than three minutes into the second half. Minnesota did not get closer than 23 points the rest of the way.
Oregon was led by Sabrina Ionescu, who had 29 points, nine assists and seven rebounds, while Ruthy Hebard added 22 points and 10 rebounds.

[2] - Big Ten/ACC Challenge (Minneapolis)
[3] - Big Ten Tournament (Target Center)

A crowd of 13,425 saw the Gophers host Kansas State in the 2004 NCAA Tournament. Minnesota won the game 80-61 en route to the program's first Final Four.

Steeped in history and tradition, Williams Arena is one of the greatest arenas in college basketball history. "The Barn" has undergone major renovations, making the arena not just one of the oldest and traditional buildings in the country, but one of the most complete and cutting-edge.

Originally opened in 1928, it was home to the women's team from 1971-93 and again from the final five games of the 2001-02 season to the present. From 1993-2001, the Golden Gophers played in the Sports Pavilion.

Construction on what is now known as Williams Arena was started in 1927 and completed in 1928, when it was dedicated as the University of Minnesota Field House. It cost $650,000 and initially had a seating capacity of 14,100 with bleacher and standing room expansion to 16,000. The original building housed basketball and winter football practice facilities. When the basketball season was completed, the portable floor was taken out and replaced by a pair of tennis courts and an indoor track.

The building was remodeled in 1950. Renamed in honor of Dr. Henry L. Williams, U of M football coach from 1900 to 1921, it was divided into a hockey arena on one end and a basketball arena with a seating capacity of 18,025 on the other. From 1950 until 1971, it had the largest capacity of any collegiate basketball arena in the country. The capacity has been reduced to 14,625 in recent years due to renovation, fire-code restrictions and handicapped-seating construction.

The east end addition is highlighted by the Williams Arena Club on the third floor. The Club overlooks the floor and can hold parties of up to 200 fans, adding another touch of class to an already classy arena. The second phase of the renovation project was completed during the summer of 1993. It included the installation of theater-style seats, the widening of concourse areas and the addition of both concession areas and women's restrooms.

A large portion of the renovation was financed by private gifts, including those to the successful $5.5 million sports-facilities campaign, and by the generous participation of fans through the assured-seating program.

The site of the 1951 men's NCAA Finals, "The Barn" can be a frightening venue for opponents. The raised floor, one of only a handful in the country, unquestionably has something to do with it. Spectators need to only witness the atmosphere and feel the electricty in The Barn just prior to any Big Ten game to find enough evidence to support that fact. The Golden Gophers' overall record in "The Barn" stands at 338-150 for a winning percentage of .693.

The largest crowd to see a women's game came on Feb. 8, 2004, when 14,363 packed into Williams Arena to see the Gophers beat Penn State, 74-56. Minnesota has had 22 games featuring crowds of at least 10,000 people in its history.

In the summer of 1997, 21 luxury barn lofts above the second deck were built. The lofts offer a spectacular birds-eye view of the court with luxury amenities. The $2.3 million project added 304 seats to the capacity, raising it to 14,625.

During the summer of 2009, the original floor of the arena was replaced at a cost of approximately $600,000. The floor was extended, as well, and new baskets were purchased.

A long and illustrious list of college basketball's greatest players have run the Williams Arena hardwood through the years, and many memorable games have been contested within its hallowed walls. The historic arena is among the finest in college basketball and enable that mystique to live on for many years to come. Williams Arena is truly what college basketball is all about.

Athletes Village opened in January of 2018

A new era in Golden Gopher Athletics began in January 2018 with the opening of the Athletes Village. The central piece of the project is the Land O'Lakes Center for Excellence which benefits all Gopher student-athletes. The new Basketball Development Center, Football Indoor Practice Facility and Football Performance Center has expanded available practice and training space for those programs.

Designed to prepare all Gopher student-athletes for a lifetime of leadership and community involvement, the Land O'Lakes Center for Excellence provides significantly more space for student-athletes and a supportive environment that builds academic success, focuses on developing leaders, and fosters healthy lifestyles. The Land O'Lakes Center for Excellence strengthens the whole student, preparing them for greatness throughout their lives.

Within the Land O'Lakes Center for Excellence are three notable facilities. The John and Nancy Lindahl Academic Center is drastically larger than the previous academic area, featuring more study and tutoring areas (eight in the old facility, 34 in the new facility), increased classroom space and a state-of-the-art technology lab.

The Leadership Development Center is the new home of student-athlete development programs and leadership training and provides training spaces, conference rooms and a board room for programs that promote leadership, life skills and community service.

The Nutrition Center replaces improvised nutrition stations scattered across campus as the brand-new space is where student-athletes eat every day (also open to all students for breakfast and lunch) and home to nutrition programs that ensure student-athletes receive the dietary guidance and daily nutrition they need for top athletic performance and a lifetime of good health.

The Charlie and Kathy Cunningham Basketball Development Center serves as the primary hub for Gopher Men's Basketball and Gopher Women's Basketball. This center equips both basketball programs with the space, amenities and technology student-athletes need to realize their full potential.

With 1.5 courts for the men's team and 1.5 courts for the women's team, student-athletes have access to practice space without scheduling around other teams or University events as they have in the past.

The new strength and conditioning space is furnished with cutting-edge equipment tailored to the unique needs of basketball to teach the latest training techniques and maximize workouts.

Located immediately next to practice areas, team room and locker room areas create convenient, modern areas for student-athletes to prepare for practice and hang out as a team.

Fully equipped support offices and meeting rooms give coaches and support staff the spaces and technology needed for optimum pre-game preparation and postgame analysis.

The recruiting room highlights and celebrates the history and accomplishments of both Gopher men's and women's basketball to future Gopher student-athletes, while offering a comfortable experience for them and their families.

Web sites will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis prior to receiving credentials. Freelance reporters and photographers must be on assignment and all credential requests must come through originating agency. Spouses, children and friends are not allowed in media seating in Williams Arena. The University of Minnesota reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual who is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

MEDIA PASS GATE
The media pass gate is located at the south end of the Oak Street lobby. If you need to pick up credentials, the media will call table is located at the Media Pass Gate. You must have proper identification to receive your credentials. The media pass gate opens three hours before game time.

GOPHERSPORTS.COM
All Golden Gopher basketball information, including rosters, notes and releases are posted on gophersports.com, the official web site of Golden Gopher Athletics.

E-MAIL SERVICES
Press releases, statistics and advisories are e-mailed to members of the media who cover the Gophers on a regular basis. Media wishing to be added to the list should contact the athletic communications office.

RADIO/TELEVISION
Minnesota's live television appearances are designated in accordance with Big Ten contractual agreements and guidelines. Radio broadcast locations are assigned for the Golden Gopher Radio Network and the opponent's flagship station/network. Seat assignments for additional opponent radio stations originating live broadcasts will be made on a space-available basis, with preference determined by the opponents' sports information offices.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Photographers and film crews may work only in the designated areas. Photographers are not allowed on the court. Failure to comply will result in expulsion from the arena.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
All pregame notes, as well as final statistics, including a full play-by-play, will be provided digitally. There will be no media meal provided, a meal voucher will be provided to working media members that will be distributed prior to the game at the media's assigned seats in Williams Arena. Snacks and water are allowed to be brought from home.

RADIO
The Williams Arena radio broadcast area is in Row 1 of the balcony on the north side of the arena, while the visiting radio position is the front row of section 203. Phone lines for the primary visiting radio outlet will be provided by Learfield Communications on a co-op basis. If a visiting team has more than one broadcast entity, they need to contact the media relations office to make arrangements for a broadcast position.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Minnesota complies with an equal-access policy. Following a 10-minute cooling-off period, postgame coaches' interviews, as well as Minnesota players interviews, will be conducted in the media room. Upon request, visiting team coaches and players will also be made available through their own athletic communications office.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY
Dawn Plitzuweit hosts media availability sessions throughout the season. Selected student-athletes will also be available, class schedule permitting. Media representatives covering the Golden Gophers on a regular basis are invited. Additional media availability arrangements may be made by contacting Trenten Gauthier.

COACH PLITZUWEIT/PLAYER INTERVIEWS
In addition to media availability, player interviews may be conducted before practices or after games by separate arrangement ahead of time. All phone interviews for out-of-town media will be conducted through the Athletic Communications Office. Phone numbers for players and coaches will not be released, and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews if contacted without prior approval of Athletic Communications.

Interviews must not conflict with off days, classes, meetings, training room treatments or other team obligations. The locker room and training room are closed to the media at all times. Requests for player and/or coach interviews, either in person or via the phone, need to be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Please allow at least 24 hours in order to facilitate arrangements for non-game day interviews, in compliance with NCAA rules.

PHOTOGRAPH REQUESTS
All requests for digital photographs of players, coaches, logos or other multimedia items must be made to the athletic communications office.
